This walk gives an opportunity to see some of the older buildings in Chartham and to walk through orchards to Chartham Hatch. 'Hatch' refers to the entrance or hatch-way through the woods which was very important when the area was covered in dense woodland.

A travers les vergers jusqu'à Chartham Hatch

Ce parcours permet d'admirer les plus vieux immeubles de Chartham et de se rendre à Chartham Hatch en marchant à travers les vergers. Le mot 'Hatch' évoque l'ouverture ou voie d'accès qui permettait de traverser la dense forêt qui recouvrait cette région d'antan.

This walk is taken from the Train Rides to Ramble in the Stour Valley series of publications, which feature full walk instructions. For a copy, contact the Kentish Stour Countryside Partnership on 01233 813307.
