This walk takes the Stour Valley Walk to Grove Ferry passing through the village of Stodmarsh and one of the country's premier nature reserves - Stodmarsh National Nature Reserve. It returns through the nature reserve and leafy lanes on a ridge above the River Stour.

Vers la roselière et le bord de l'eau en passant par le parc Trenley

Ce parcours traverse le village de Stodmarsh en direction de la réserve naturelle du même nom, qui est l'une des plus importantes en Angleterre. Le chemin du retour vers Sturry passe à travers bois par des sentiers ombragés en empruntant la crête qui surplombe la rivière Stour.

This walk is taken from the Train Rides to Ramble in the Stour Valley series of publications, which feature full walk instructions. For a copy, contact the Kentish Stour Countryside Partnership on 01233 813307.
