A walk up the Downs above Wye and Crundale, taking in some of the most important chalk grassland in the country, returning to Wye via the spectacular Devil's Kneading Trough and the former Wye College Estate.

Une couronne parmi les joyaux.

Une balade dans les Downs, à l'aplomb des villages de Wye et Crundale, qui chemine à travers l'une des plus intéressantes pelouses crayeuses de la région. Le retour à Wye s'effectue via le site spectaculaire du Devil's Kneading Trough, ou pétrin du diable, et traverse également le domaine de la faculté de Wye.

This walk is taken from the Train Rides to Ramble in the Stour Valley series of publications, which feature full walk instructions. For a copy, contact the Kentish Stour Countryside Partnership on 01233 813307.
