A walk to the top of the downs on both sides of the river, passing through some of the older parts of King's Wood and the delightful landscape of Godmersham Park. The trail passes across land that has embraced the Environmental Stewardship Scheme.

Les intendants du patrimoine rural

Une balade au milieu des Downs prenant place des deux côtés de la rivière et traversant certaines des plus anciennes parties du bois du Roi - King's Wood, ainsi que les charmants paysages du parc de Godmersham.

Le sentier de randonnée chemine à travers plusieurs terres ayant adopté le Environmental Stewardship Scheme, adaption nationale de la législation européenne concernant la gestion des zones rurales et la conservation du patrimoine naturel.

This walk is taken from the Train Rides to Ramble in the Stour Valley series of publications, which feature full walk instructions. For a copy, contact the Kentish Stour Countryside Partnership on 01233 813307.
